A Graduate Looks at the War

During this epic-making year of 1942 there has come to us graduates the most critical period of our generation. Others before us have been faced with much the same situation, but these parents, teachers, and friends who have undergone crises in former years cannot pass their experience on to us. We must find the pathway through this maze of conflicting ideals, standards, and principles by ourselves. We cannot do all of it collectively; each graduate must search out his own way, guided by his own convictions.

So far, our lives have not outwardly been changed; we still go about doing the things high school seniors have always done, without bothering to find a more interesting and useful way. We have allowed others to live our lives for us, plan our games for us, and even make up our minds for us. In some inexplicable way we lost the old independence that was once a national characteristic.

Now, after this world of complacency has toppled about our very beings, we suddenly awake to find a new world, a world in which there is only one way to survive and that way is to utilize all available energy. To overcome our sense of incompetence we have become active this year in the Red Cross; we have become blood donors, have enrolled in first aid courses, and have given our limited financial income to our government in the form of defense stamps. Time and practical ability have taken on a

But, even above all this, the change in our inner selves is most remarkable. We now fully appreciate our heritage, handed down by sturdy Americans; our freedom no longer exists only in the pages of history books; it is real and living; it must be fostered and protected, if need be, by our lives!

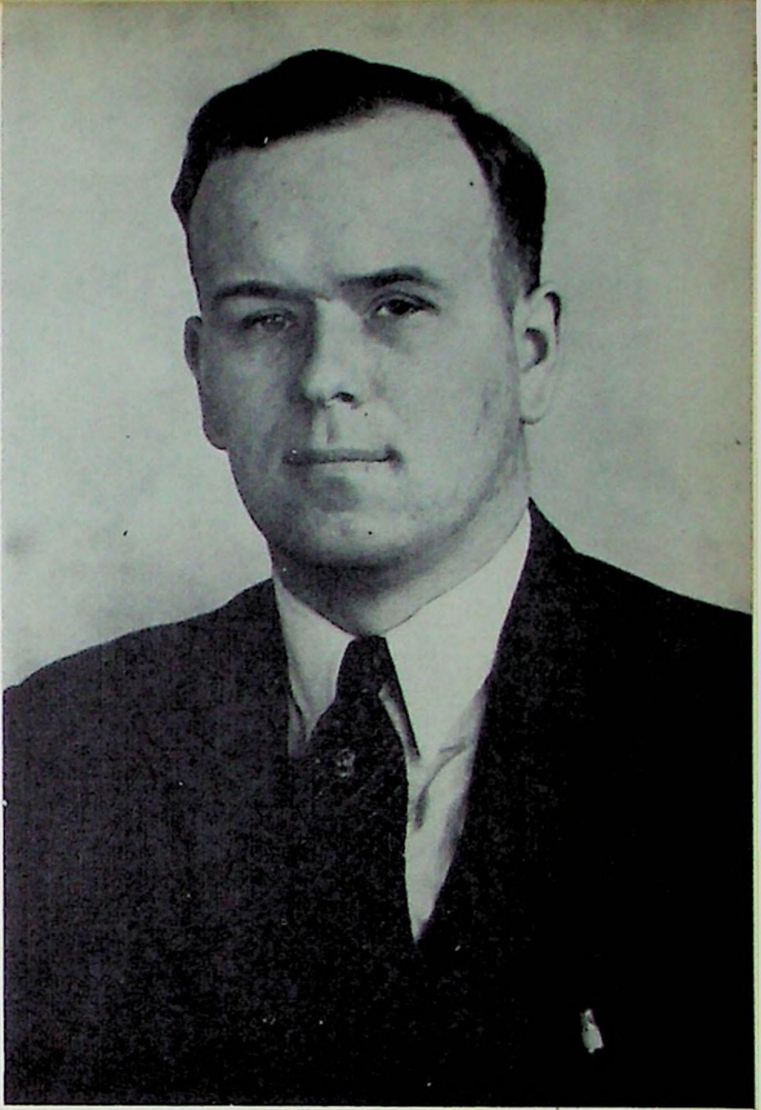
Mabel L. Huber

In appreciation of her time and effort in propelling us through four full and varied years, the class of '42 wholeheartedly thank Miss Mabel L. Huber, our adviser.

Edward P. Hamann



We dedicate our yearbook to our classmate, Edward Hamann, whose example and singular achievement have inspired us to a greater determination to overcome handicaps.

Official Communique for 1942

When the class of 1942 started out in the fall of 1938 to surpass the excellent records of previous classes, little did its members realize that before they graduated our country would be involved in today's world-wide conflict. However, to our advantage, Miss Huber was appointed commander-in-chief of our class to guide us through this turmoil successfully.

Accordingly, in our freshman year Stuart Smiley was elected general, Dean Miller colonel, Robert Anderson major, and Robert Leupold captain. Because of our commander-in-chief's injury during that year we were greatly handicapped so that we could only publish a Junior High Annual, produce a junior high commencement play, "Spreading the News," and give a roller skating party in June. We also managed to sell home-made candy at the annual senior play, so that these proceeds would pay for our class picture in the 1938 "Cayugan."

In our sophomore year the war, into which our country was later drawn, started. Thus, after electing Norman Berner its general, Shirley Phillips colonel, Harold Zoerb major, and Ramon VanBuskirk captain, we began to work harder by conducting a very successful magazine campaign. During this year we conducted our first social events, a Soph-Junior party dance, a Sophomore dance, and a Crystal Beach party.

Having gained much experience by the previous year's work, we undertook the full schedule of our junior year by first electing General Oscar Patrignani, Colonel Norman Berner, Major Jane L. Smith, and Captain Robert Leupold. We repeated our magazine campaign successfully; therefore, with the funds derived from these undertakings we held several dances, the most successful being the St. Patrick's Dance. We completed the year with our Junior Prom.

Since the theme of this prom was a Mexican fiesta, the high school gym was readily transformed into El Rancho Mexicano by a very competent decorating committee. We feel that much of the success of this event was due to this Latin-American atmosphere. Norman Berner and Esther Zittel were crowned the king and queen. Then, after this delightful occasion, we prepared for our annual conflict, examinations, which came as a fitting accompaniment to the real conflict into which our country was slowly being drawn.

As our problems, both as a nation and a class, increased in our senior year, so did our ambitions. We elected a very energetic and capable general, Louis Swanson. On his staff of officers were included Robert Leupold as colonel, Ruth Irish as major, and Jane L. Smith as captain. He immediately set forth plans for several dances, which as a whole were highly successful and greatly contributed to our "Cayugan" fund. In sharp contrast to world conditions we produced, under the able direction of Mr. J. S. Bigelow and Mr. Allen Williams, the comedy, "Ever Since Eve," as our senior play. This proved to be a tremendous financial and social success. At present, plans are being decided upon to make the Senior Ball the most outstanding event of our high school years.

Class Prophecy

Come war, come revolution--the Class of '42 can still be counted on to turn out:

FRANK ACKER--Engineer on the New York Limited, taking a deep breath of air as he burrows through the mile-long tunnel under the big metropolis of Lancaster.

JEANETTE GOEHLE--Manager of Finkle's Famous Flowers, whose slogan reads:

'Roses are red;
Violets are blue;
Say it with flowers--
They mean I love you.'

EDDIE HAMANN and his dog searching for the origin and meaning of the word 'osseocarnisanguineocartilafinoneromedullary.'

EVELYN KABEL--In a little white cap making soldiers oh, so-o-o comfortable.

RUDY KOPF--Geologist digging under the Washington Monument for stones to put in his museum.

GLORIA VELOCCI--World-famous piano teacher for beginners beginning the beguine.

DAVE MORROW--Introducing to the world 'The Manipulation of Morrow's Method of Mastering Multiplication' (so that 2 x 2 will be 5.)

ERNIE STILB--Floating through life with Rita as his wife.

SYLVIA MAYBACH--The Queen of the Kingdom of Pots and Pans with her King, Eddie Voigt.

BOB KLINKMAN--A little gray-haired old man woefully drowning his troubles in sixteen sarsaparillas after another failure in assembling his sister's car.

ZEB KESSEL--Future Dodge salesman still trying to dodge the draft.

KATE SMITH--Camp hostess who has acquired the title of 'The Brunette Bomb,' which is one kind of bomb the soldiers don't smother with sand.

FRED ROHL--Minister of Propaganda who has acquired quite a reputation as a 'gad-about.'

BOB MALZAN--Telling all the little Malzans how he was the 'Bowmansville Romeo' in them thar days.

DEAN MILLER--Successful cameraman in Hollywood, but still wishing he were in front of the camera instead of behind it.

MARY CZAPLA--Famous 5th Avenue coiffeur who is finding it quite a task to substitute toothpicks for hairpins.

BRUCE CARLSON--Finding a jeep car almost as much fun as his model A of high school days.

NORMAN BERNER--Famous floral doctor of Berner's Greenhouse who spends many an evening sitting up with a blackeyed susan.

ELEANOR MOODIE--Her mama told her about Santa Claus, but she still enjoys Noel.

WALTER FERRY--A caddie at Upsy-Downs who walks so much that he has a 'hole-in-one' sock and 'fore' in the other.

LUCY GIAMBRA--Assistant to the famous physician, Dr. R. U. Normal.

'TEDDY' GORENFLO--Renowned track star 'running' into difficulties.

LEONARD GWAREK--Just another man in Uncle Sam's Army.

RICHARD HARTEL--Owner and operator of the Snazzy Service Station and Swifty Snack Shoppe.

RITA HILDERBRANDT--English teacher with a P. A. S. degree (Professor of American Slanguage.)

IRVING HOLTZ--Inventor of a new office machine that combines all functions and pays the bills.

JOHN HUBER--Endlessly, still endlessly, looking for a wife.

EUGENE JANKOWSKI--High scorer for the Lancaster Grand-pappies basketball team, sponsored by the Alden Grand-mammies Sewing Circle.

EDDIE KAZMIER--Railroad engineer on the D. L. and W. R. R. (Depew, Lancaster and Williamsville Lines).

OSCAR PATRIGNANI--Telling all the little Patrignanis how to make history, not learn it.

JOHN LOHR--Changing his residence from Pa. to title of 'pa.'

BOB HOWES--Advertiser for Springle's Springing Noodles heard every Monday night over station I. Y. Q.

BILL SCHERER--Famous brain, bean, and bone specialist who has acquired the reputation of being quite a 'cut-up.'

LOIS FREY--President of the New York State League of Feminine Morticians.

RUTHIE ROYER--Helping hubby James out of the trouble he has talked himself into.

HAROLD ZOERB--Sacrificing his car to Uncle Sam as----junk.

EVIE FEUERSTEIN--Running 'The Cheektowaga Coffee Shoppe' across the street from 'Barney's Big Business Station.'

BET BECKER--Head of the 'If it's nuts you want, we got'um' Hospital.

HERBIE FREY--Secretary of Agriculture in the 1960 cabinet.

BERT LEICH--Studying industriously each moment in order to pass his English IV regents by 1960.

RUTHIE IRISH--Continuing to balance Pinkie's diet.

PETE SMOLNESKY--Owner of the only theater for miles around who advertises, in addition to the main feature, Bank Nite, a showing of the latest picture.

DON STEINMAN--Former L. H. S. track star now keeping in condition by running from shoe to sock counter.

TERESA SENF--Future Lily Dache' in Bowmansville, the coming fashion center of the world.

JOHN SERGI--Trying to keep his earning capacity up to his wife's yearning capacity.

THELMA STROH--Playing her record of 'Elmer's Tune' at least three times a day just so she won't forget.

VIRGINIA WATSON--Just 'Drifting and Dreaming' of Mike.

ESSIE ZITTEL--Queen of the car hops as chosen at a recent meeting of the Car Hop Patrons' Society of America.

RICHARD MEASER--Renowned authority on 'truckin'

PETER TRACY--Swatting mosquitoes on a mosquito boat in the Philippines.

RUTH HASENFLUG--Changing the Girl Scout motto from 'Do a good turn daily' to 'Have a good time nightly.'

LORETTA SAMULSKI--Giving advice to the lovelorn in her column of the daily paper.

'HERB' MOOK--Hoping his grandchildren will fall 'hook, line, and sinker' for the fish stories he is telling them.

CORTLAND HAAG--First mate on the U. S. S. Ishetight where there are just 'gobs' of sailors.

'MARGIE' STILB--Married four times--to a banker, actor, automobile salesman and an undertaker. One for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go.

MARIAN SEITZ--Woefully inquiring of Doc Scherer how to get rid of 'a pain in the neck.'

'JOHNNY' JACOBS--Leader of men and follower of women.

JANE SMITH--Cutest of the army camp hostesses who maneuvers from army camp to army camp just to help the war effort along.

JOHN O'HERN--Famous doctor who boasts that he never lost a case--well, almost never!

ARTHUR PABST--An old war veteran telling all his children how he made those yellow critters bow down on their Japan Knees.

'DEC' PARSONS--Super salesman for Parson's Paints which come in six outstanding colors: strawberry, raspberry, cherry, orange, lemon and lime.

NORMAN SANDEL--Owner of 'Sandel's Super Soda Sipper Store.'

CALVIN BROWN--Editor-in-chief of the 'Marilla Monitor.'

JEANETTE COZZOLINO--An assistant in the state hospital whose patients within a few days take a turn for the nurse.

DORIS ROHL--Working her way from the head of the office to the lap of the boss.

ETHEL MAURER--Renowned artist who created a Venus with limbs so that the women of America would be 'armed.'

ARLENE SIMME--'Keeping the Home Fires Burning' for hubby Fritz.

MILLIE SCHUTTA--Changing her name again--this time for good.

EMILIA KIN--Doing her best to keep the women beautiful as her man does his his best to keep America free.

JUNE HANNAH--Trying to think up titles for her own latest futuristic paintings.

BOB LEUPOLD--Filling Chief Bund's shoes, but still trying to fit into his pants.

HAROLD LANDAHL--Famed for his daily column entitled 'My Way,' or, '99-1/2% Wool--ff.'

HELEN OFFHAUS--Selling shoes and socks to the soldiers so that they'll be able to put their best feet forward.

LORRAINE MOTZ--Reminiscing at Theola's house on the old L. H. S. dance dates.

JOHN STETZ--Has completed his training for bat boy and now is available for pitching---woo?

HAZEL STUART--Serving ice cream and cookies to homesick rookies.

LOUIE SWANSON--Still applying his experience as Senior Class president by serving as the brains of 'Swanson's Swanky Swing Spot.'

ARLENE MAC DAVID--Famous Lancaster dentist whose slogan is 'Last Time We Drilled, We Thought We Struck Oil.'

DOROTHY JANICZ--Taking dictation from her favorite 'boss man.'

ANDY ANDERSON--Supposed successor to Don Budge, but who serves his Uncle Sam across the sea instead of his opponent across the net.

CELIA BOLDT--Just another school-marm 'In A Little Red Schoolhouse' out Marilla way.

DON HOWES--Taking an occasional week-end off to go deer hunting in the Poconos, but always remembering to save on the 'dough.'

ANNE KUPER--Still trying to master her shorthand in an offhand way.

SAMMY VOLPE--Running a candy store, but having to change over to dry goods because he lost his 'sugar.'

'NEEDLES' NIEDERHOFER--Singing sadly to a picture of Andy, 'I loved my man, but he done me wrong.'

'BUD' BROWN--Running his own ice-cream bar now with the promise, 'More Dough, More Dips.'

Cayugan Staff

We have earnestly tried to make our 1942 Cayugan the best yearbook in the annals of our school.

To all faculty members who cooperated, especially Miss Bates, to the writers, typists, photographers, and contributors from all classes, we say sincerely, 'Thank you!'

Maroon Oracle Staff

The enlargement of the official school publication The Maroon Oracle,' after years of planning and hoping, and a record sign-up of staff reporters marked the highlights of the paper's tenth year of publication.

Mr. Stewart Bigelow, who assumed complete charge of the 'Oracle' this year, appointed Calvin Brown to take over the duties of editor-in-chief.

Band

Owing to the graduation of many of its members and schedule conflicts, the ranks of the band were very much depleted this year. The band was the smallest in the history of the school, but maintained the prestige of the school by appearing at all home football games and taking an active part in the annual Christmas festival. High hope is held for a bright future because of many promising novices.

Orchestra

The Lancaster High School Orchestra completed a successful year under the guidance of Mr. Ivan Rightmyer. It played for the Thanksgiving program, the senior play, the Dramatic Club plays, and participated in the Christmas program and spring concert.

The personnel of the orchestra was rather limited, especially lacking in instrumentation. Conflicts with required subjects was one of the main reasons for this.

Girls' Glee Club

This year the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Marlo K. Schermerhorn, consisted of fifty members. The club traveled to Atlantic City last spring to sing in the national contests, receiving a second rating. The club sang at the May Festival, in an assembly program, and entered the music contest at Hamburg in April.

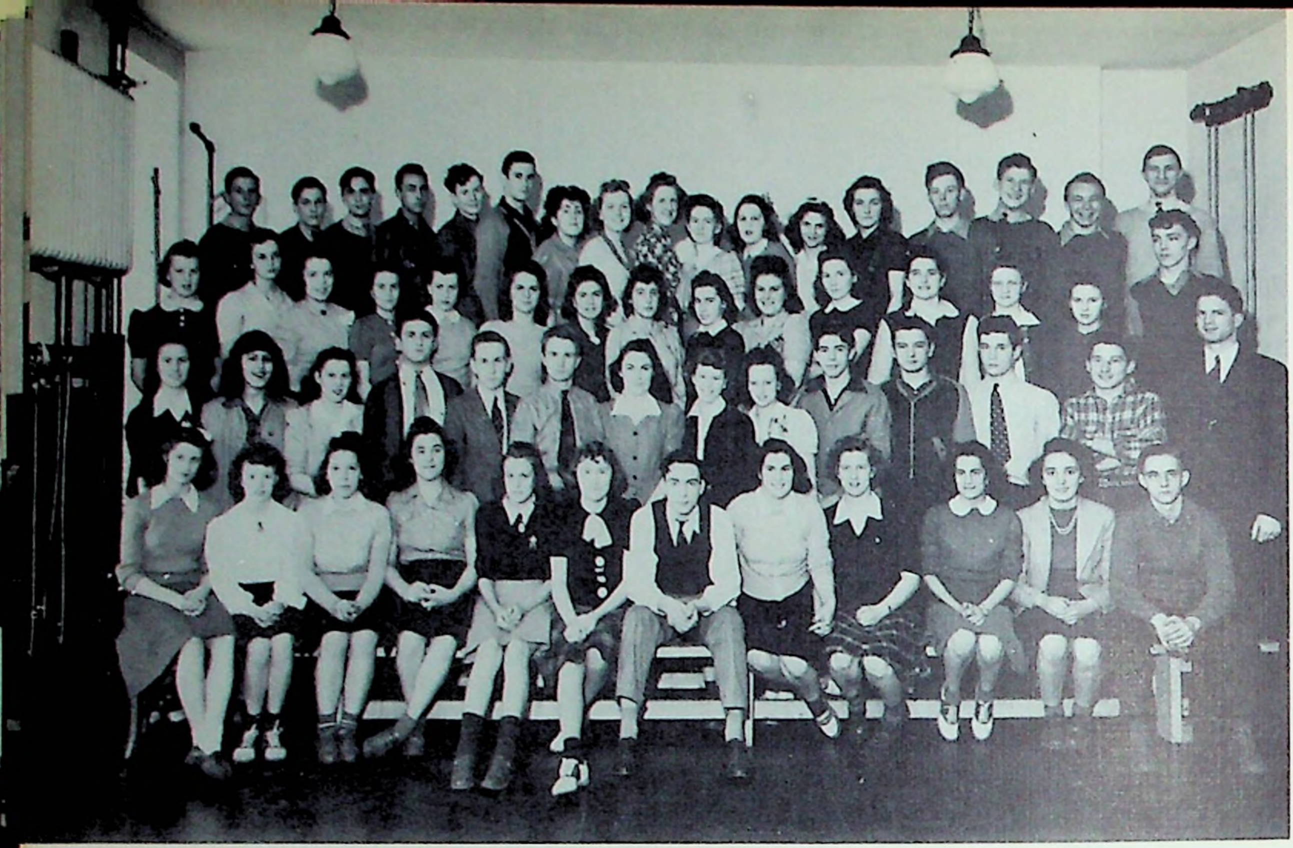
Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus consisted of thirty members this year. Rehearsals were held on Tuesday and Thursday from three to four o'clock. This was the first year that credit was given to those belonging to the organization.

The organization participated in the Christmas concert and the spring concert. It also competed in the music festival held at Hamburg.

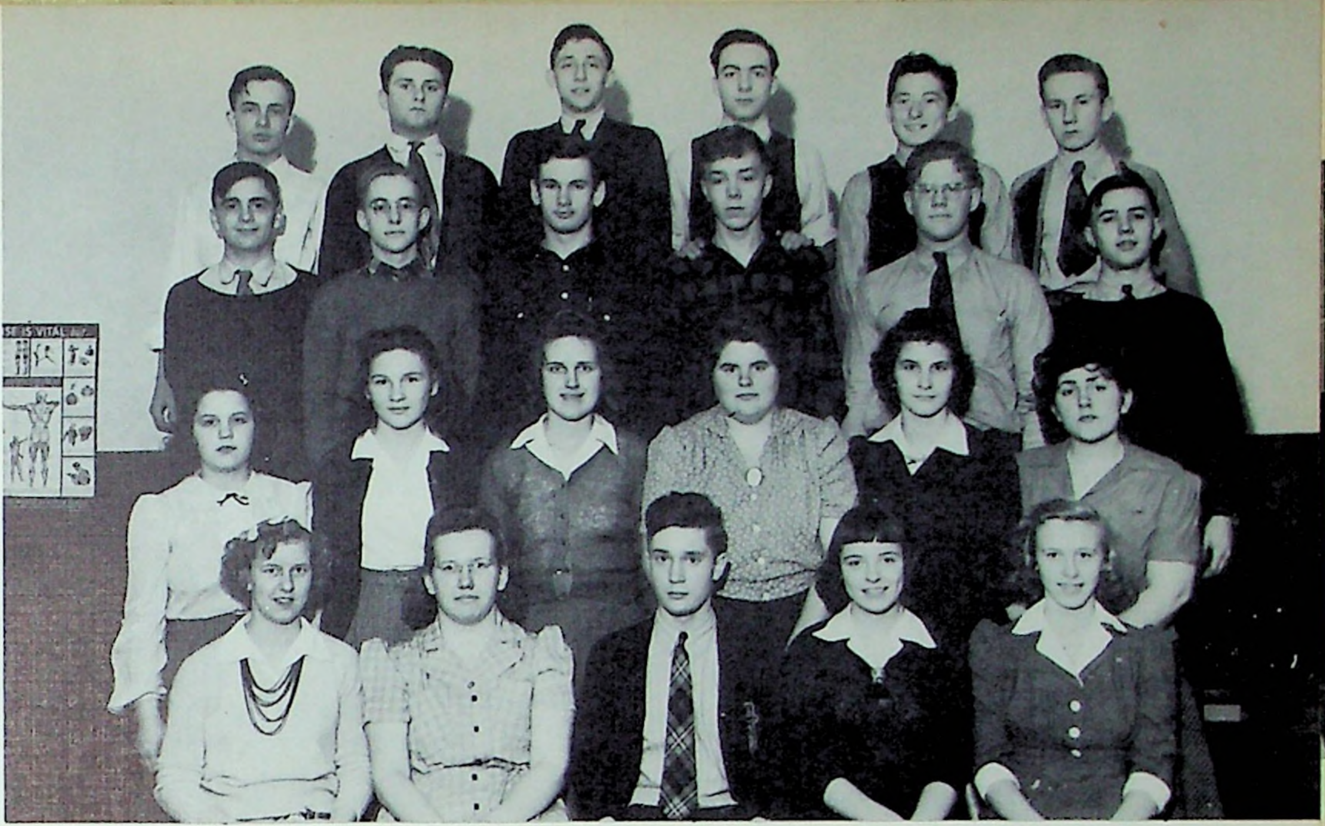


FOURTH ROW: W. Gorenflo, W. Henke, E. Kopf, M. VanBuskirk, B. Gillon, C. Brown, E. Kabel, R. Irish, T. Stroh, R. Hasenflug, M. Schutta, J. Santini, D. Swartz, B. Carlson, N. Berner, R. Heitz, D. Miller. THIRD ROW: S. Pearles, J. Vesper, J. Miller, Jane E. Smith, K. Smith, D. Nowakowski, G. Velocci, L. Giambra, V. Yost, J. Cozzolino, N. Reynolds, R. Senf, E. Zarnikau, B. Southworth, J. O'Hern. SECOND ROW: M. Beam, L. Cretekos, R. Bulman, J. Messenger, H. Orchard, T. Nichols, Alice Miller, M. Colling, R. Seitz, R. Kimbrough, F. Price, E. Kinnen, G. O'Neil, Mr. George Brown. FRONT ROW: S. Davies, E. Stivers, R. Hilderbrandt, M. Czapla, B. Coleman, N. MacPherson, R. Kopf, S. Snyder, F. Schmahl, A. Lemme, P. Meidenbauer, R. Brock.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic Club, supervised by Mr. George Brown, has the largest membership in its history. Rudolph Kopf is president; Fern Schmahl, vice-president; Norma MacPherson, secretary; and Shirley Snyder, treasurer.

In November the club presented an evening program of one-act plays, the proceeds going to the assembly fund. Its Easter play was also directed by Mr. Brown, and the cast visited Depew High School in March.



FOURTH ROW: R. Stutzman, J. Messenger, R. Anderson, R. Kopf, G. O'Neil, H. Orchard, THIRD ROW: E. Kopf, R. Brock, C. Brown, J. O'Hern, R. Kling, E. Meyer. SECOND ROW: M. Schutta, N. Reynolds, T. Senf, L. Frey, A. MacDavid, E. Kabel. FRONT ROW: F. Schmahl, B. Niederhofer, E. Kinnen, V. Crory, M. Bochenik. ABSENTEES: Mr. Robert Wright and Mr. Herman Kling, faculty advisers; R. Howes.

Senior Science Club

The Science Club began meeting early in the fall with Mr. Wright acting as official adviser. Officers elected for the year were Edwin Kinnen, science master; Virginia Crory, assistant science master; and Betty Niederhofer, recording chemist.

At the meetings held every other Friday after school, programs were conducted by the students in chemistry and physics concerning some scientific problem they were then studying in class.

Activity Club

After a delayed start in holding social events, the Activity Club held a Hoodoo Dance in March. The proceeds obtained supported a later club party.

The officers of the club were as follows: President, Dexter Parsons; Vice-President, Louis Swanson; Treasurer, Rudy Kopf; Secretary, Suzette Schneider; Sergeant-at-Arms, Norman Berner.

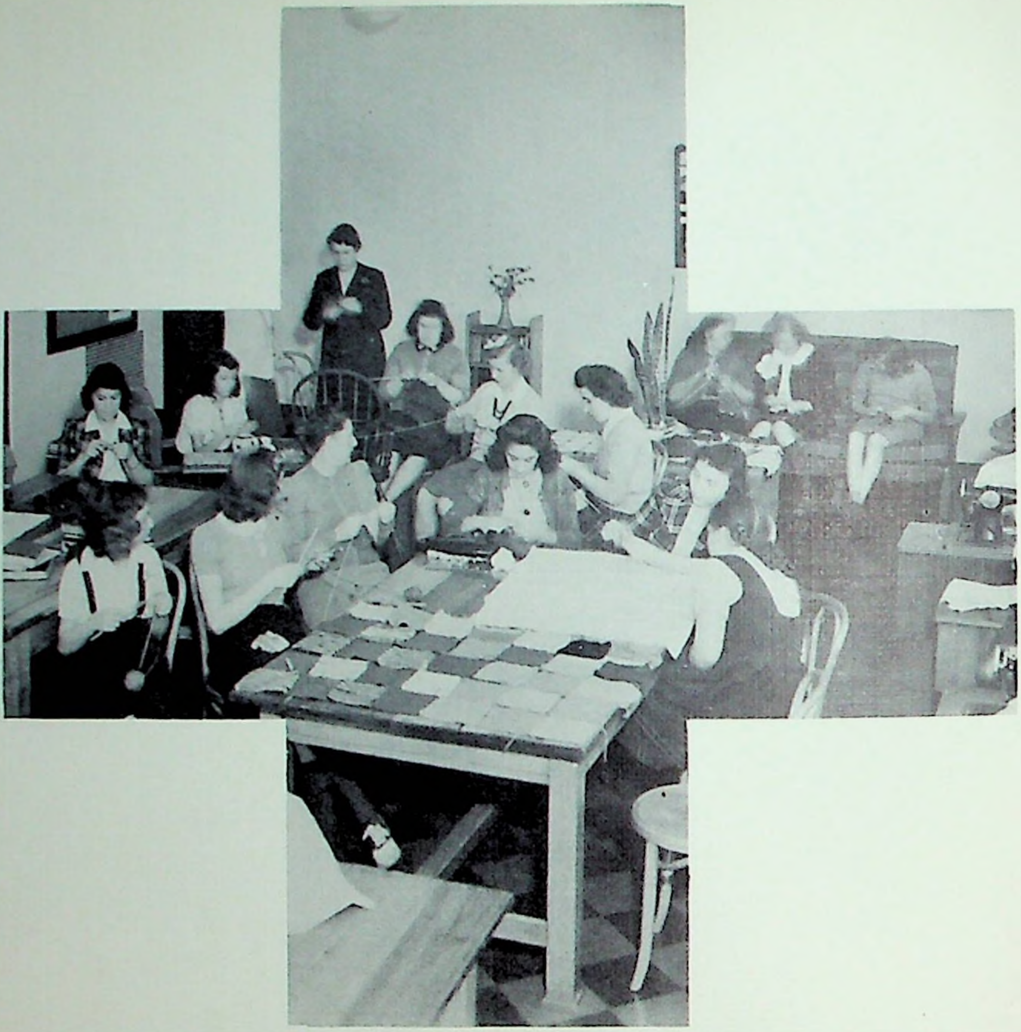
"Ever Since Eve"

The Senior Class this year presented the uproarious comedy, 'Ever Since Eve,' by Ryerson and Clements, depicting the troubles of Johnny Clover, editor of the school paper, when the journalism teacher appoints two girls to assist him. N. Berner and J. L. Smith shared the honors as Johnny and Susan Blake, his childhood sweetheart. Southern Lucybelle Lee, who tried to win too many boys, was ably played by R. Irish. The cooperation of the entire staff made this play one of the most successful by any senior class. We are grateful to Mr. Bigelow and Allen Williams, whose patience and time contributed most to the play's success.



Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross met in the home economics room every Friday from three to five for sewing or knitting. Miss Smedley is the senior high adviser, Miss Mook the junior high adviser, Miss Kling and Miss Putnam are sewing consultants. Jeanette Cozzqlino is student chairman.

Last year was the first for the Junior Red Cross at L. H. S., and this is the first year the group has been active. Any boy or girl who contributed to the Red Cross drive could attend its meeting and help our war efforts.

SPORTS

Football

Hindered by many bad breaks, the 1941 L. H. S. football squad ended the season with only one victory, gained over Depew after the two schools had resumed their competition after a nine-year break in the series.

The 1942 Maroon team will be an almost entirely new one because of the number of veteran players graduating this year.

Basketball

This year's team was handicapped by the graduation of its veteran members last June, but managed to defeat Attica twice and Pine Hill High School also.

This year's high scorers for the Maroon and Black were Frank Gac with 92 points and Edward Bosse with 52 points. The team's outstanding defensive players this season were Dean Miller and William Scherer.

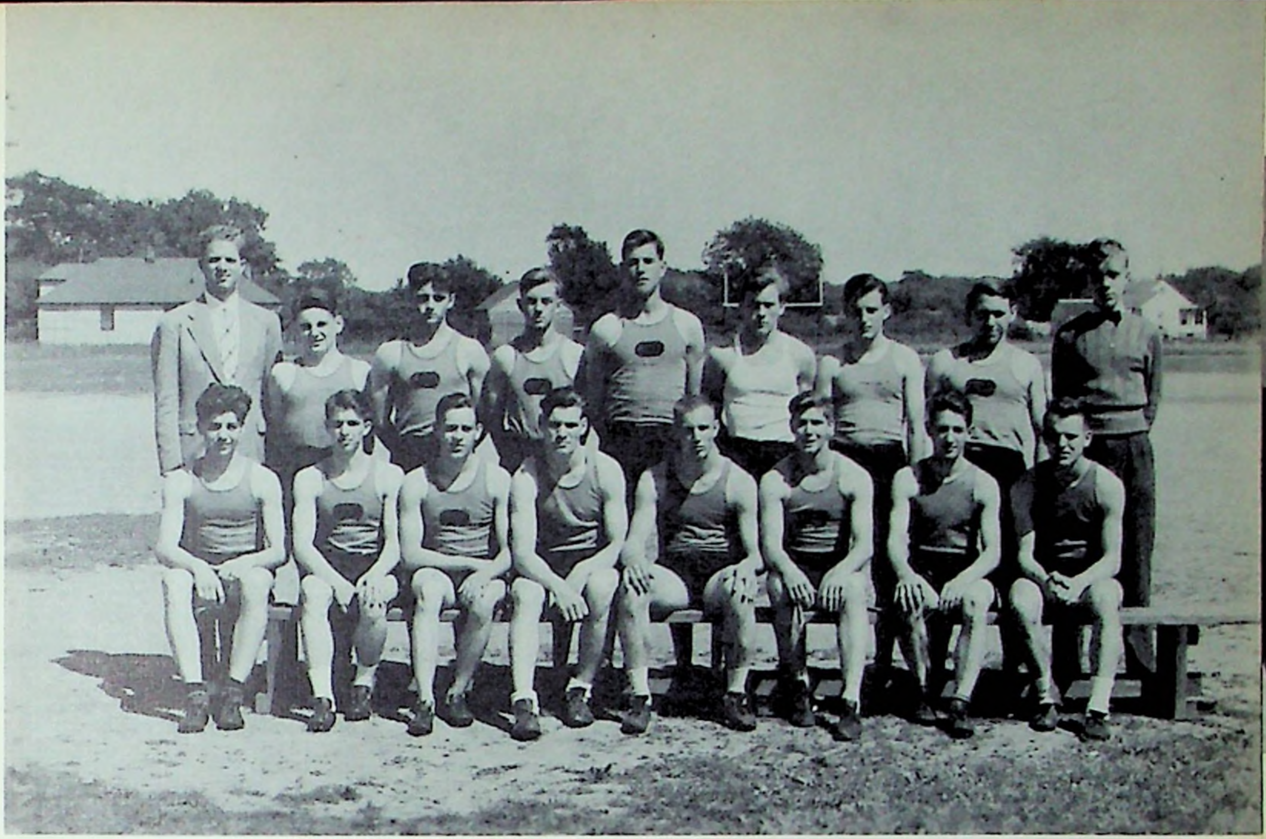
Baseball

The baseball team of 1941 was strong, winning almost all the games on its schedule. There was a three-way tie among Alden, Depew and Lancaster. Lancaster successfully defeated Depew, but lost to Alden, leaving L. H. S. in second place.

Much of the success of the team was due to the outstanding playing of Donald Vesper, Harry Bonazelli, Howard Simme, and Bernard Wagner.



SECOND ROW: Mr. George Brown, H. Mason, J. Messinger, J. Meiler, F. Gac, M. Coons, T. Gorenflo, A. Pabst, J. O'Hern. FRONT ROW: L. Grambo, J. Eberhardt, D. Steinman, R. Schackow, D. Vesper, H. Simme, J. Huber, F. Brown.

Track

The track and field squad of 1941 was strong in individual winners, but lacked the balance necessary for a championship team. In the Western New York Sectionals, contestants for which were selected from the schools of Western New York, members of the L. H. S. squad won six medals. Fred Brown, John Huber, Richard Schackow, Howard Simme, James Eberhardt, Donald Steinman, and Donald Vesper were consistent point winners in all meets.

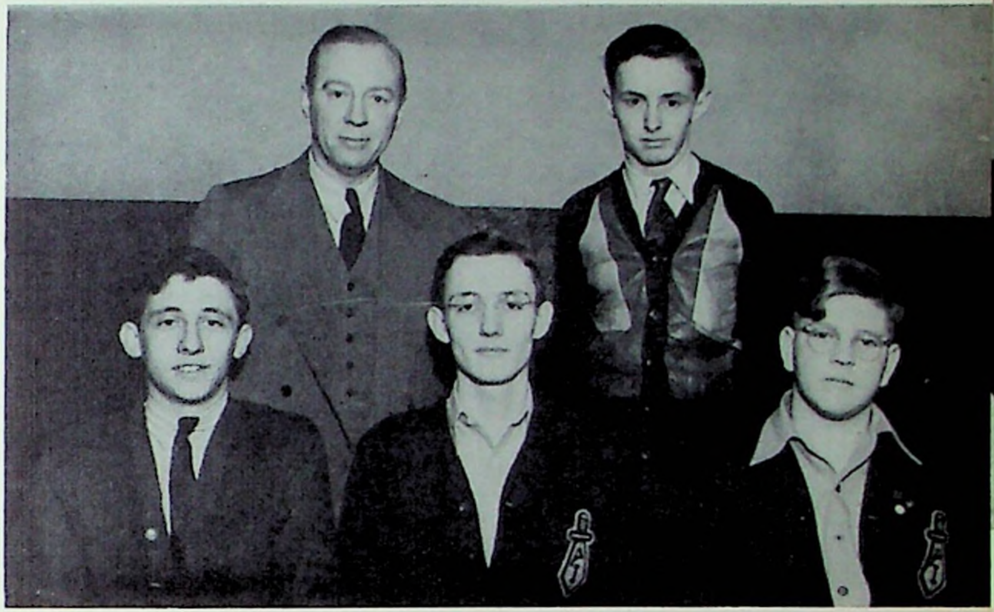
Cross-Country

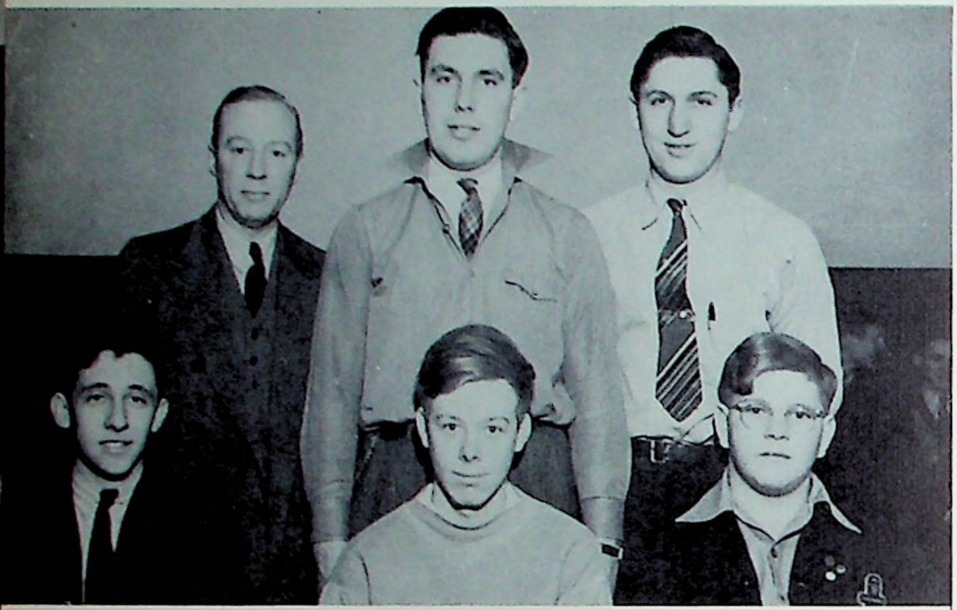
The cross-country squad of 1941 completed its most successful year since this sport was inaugurated at L. H. S. Lancaster broke East Aurora's four-year monopoly of the Western New York Intermediate Conference title. The highlight of the season was a trip to Syracuse, where there were over two hundred contestants in one race. Don Steinman won medals in Syracuse, Gowanda, and Silver Creek. Ted Gorenflo and Bob Havernick also won medals at Silver Creek.



SECOND ROW: Mr. Walter Simmons, R. Brown. FRONT ROW: R. Anderson, W. Scherer, R. Leupold.

Tennis

Last year Lancaster was again a member of the Erie County High School Tennis League. The team was composed of Daniel Gillon, Robert Leupold, William Scherer, Frederick Meyer, Roy Brown, and Robert Anderson, with Walter R. Simmons as coach. When the season closed, Lancaster was in fourth place among the eight teams with four matches won and three lost. This year the tennis team may be suspended because of the lack of transportation.



SECOND ROW: Mr. Walter Simmons, R. Malzan, P. Tracy.

Bowling

The L. H. S. varsity bowling team had a very successful season this year. The league consisted of about nine teams and at the close of the season our team finished in third place. On March 14 the team went to Albion to compete in play-offs there. The team ended up in second place with a total of 2570 for three games to Albion's 2599, which took first place.

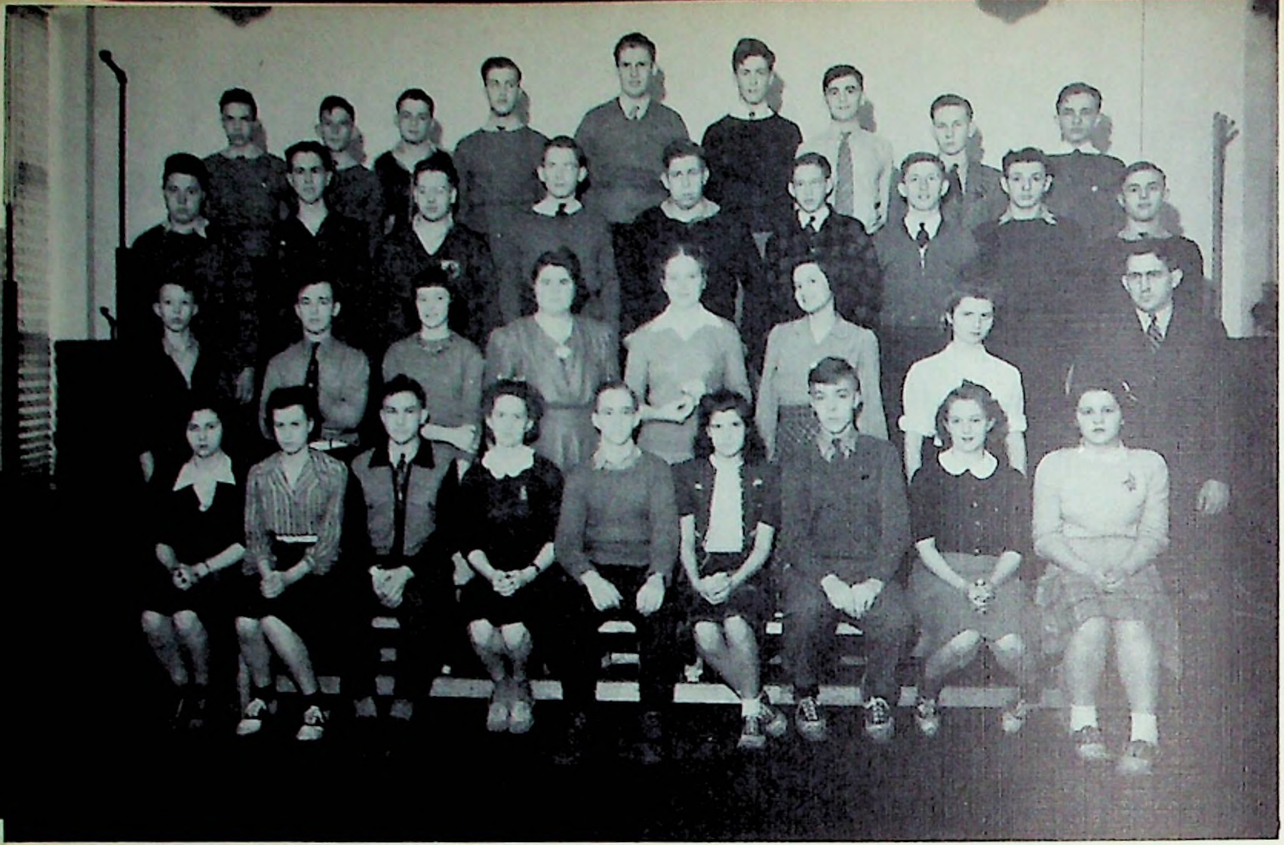
Golf

The Lancaster High Golf team of 1941-'42 completed the first half of their schedule successfully by retaining first place. The sport differs from others because it has two seasons, fall and spring, to complete one schedule. The second half of this season's schedule has been discontinued because of the shortage of rubber and gasoline for national defense, affecting both supplies and transportation for the team.

The team was supervised by Mr. Walter Simmons. The golfers won seven games and were defeated only by the Amherst High School team.



FOURTH ROW: L. Havens, W. Gorenflo, F. Price, B. Schutta, H. Frey, T. Brunea, E. Kopf, H. Orchard, R. Stutzman. THIRD ROW: D. Morrow, J. Abendschein, R. Haen, C. DeFries, H. Fitzsimmons, W. Lahnen, L. Malinowski, N. Winiecki, E. Meyer. SECOND ROW: R. Striegel, J. Jacobs, V. Crory, L. Frey, G. Dell, A. Strabel, Jane L. Smith, Mr. James Patterson. FRONT ROW: S. Schneider, K. Smith, W. Blaesing, R. Hasenflug, R. Brock, B. Torpy, J. O'Hern, R. Royer, M. Schutta. ABSENTEES: D. Baird, W. Burke, N. Davis, P. Harding, E. Kennedy, H. Maurer, J. Maute, G. O'Neil, J. Roudet, J. VanVleet, J. Vetter, G Volker, K. Wahl, R. Wiggins.

Cayuga Junior Rifle Club

The Cayuga Rifle Club was formed late in '40-'41 to instruct those interested in shooting and provide competition for the more experienced members. Since the club is affiliated with the junior division of the National Rifle Association, a system of awards was made possible. This, with the inter-class teams, formed a well-rounded schedule of adequate competition. Leading the organization are Richard Brock, president; Betty Torpy, vice-president; Ruth Hasenflug, secretary; William Blaesing, treasurer; and John O'Hern, executive officer. Mr. James Patterson acted as faculty adviser and coach to this timely organization.

Girls' Bowling

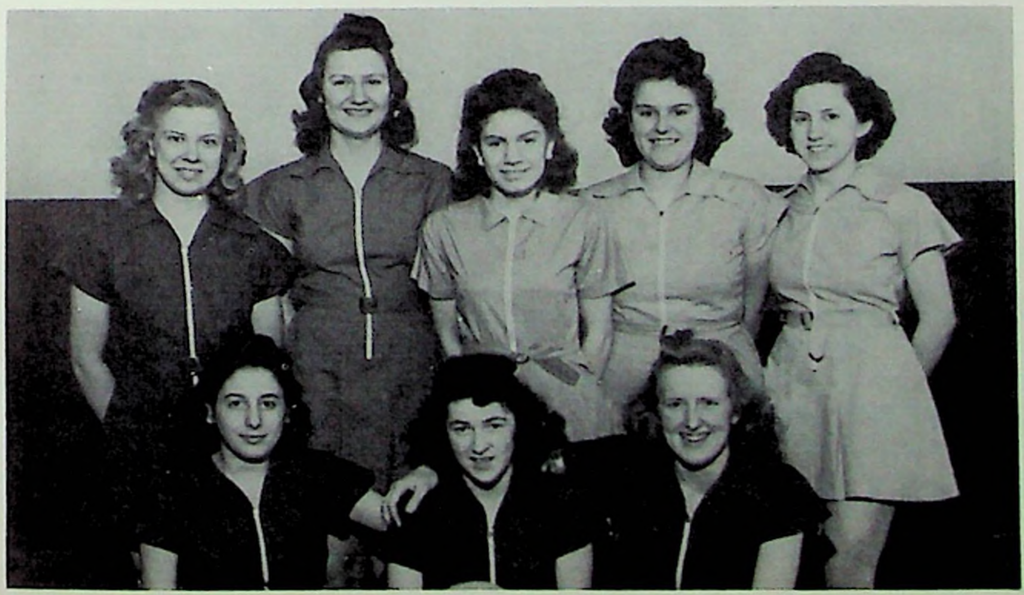
Girls' Volleyball & Basketball



SECOND ROW: E. Kin, V. Watson, G. Velocci, J. Cozzolino, D. Rohl, FRONT ROW: L. Giambra, M. Stilb, T. Stroh.

FOURTH ROW: M. Seitz, S. Snyder, L. Cretekos, D. Ciesielski, J. Miller, M. Peters, G. Dell, A. Strabel, E. Kennedy, V. Crory, M. Hope, V. Loesch, E. Stivers. THIRD ROW: S. Reid, R. Seitz, M. Beam, A. Miller, J. Vesper, E. Abendschein, M. Colling, S. Smith, V. Yost, Jane E. Smith. SECOND ROW: B. Niederhofer, N. MacPherson, J. Maute, L. Schneider, T. Senf, B. Becker, J. Cozzolino, L. Giambra, G. Velocci, Miss Florence Gillette. FIRST ROW: D. Zittel, C. Boldt, R. Irish, Jane L. Smith, K. Smith, M. Stilb, A. MacDavid, T. Stroh, E. Kin, R. Hasenflug, M. Schutta.

Old English L Club

The Old English L Club was formed to enable girl athletes to earn their letter and athletic certificate, the same as boys. The point system is used, replacing the inter-scholastic activities in which the boys participate. Points are obtained by inter-class competition, yearly improvement, extra-curricular activities, class work, and leadership. Each month the junior and senior girls had a party at the school. The officers are Marjorie Stilb, president; Lola Cretekos, vice-president; Kathryn Smith, secretary; and Arlene MacDavid, treasurer.

Block L Club

This club is composed of all varsity athletes who earned their letter in any of the following sports: track, tennis, baseball, golf, football, and basketball. For their participation in these sports the athletes receive an 'L' which enables them to become a member of this club. The members cooperate in making the annual athletic banquet a success.

In Memory

WADE ELMER SHARP

It is with a genuine sense of personal grief that the Oracle records the loss at sea of Elmer Sharp, class of '38, familiarly known to us as 'Nemo.' His giving his life to his country, for us and for all we as true Americans hold worth dying for, is the first instance of an alumnus of this school, or of a citizen of this community, fulfilling his supreme duty in the struggle for the noblest cause for which men have ever fought. We hope that his will be the only casualty in World War II from this immediate area, but if Providence decrees otherwise, as she undoubtedly will, the recollection of his brief career will shine on as a memorable example.

We here at school remember Elmer particularly for his excellent athletic record, distinguishing himself in football, track, tennis, and basketball, receiving his major award for football in 1938. As a member of the band for two years and a reliable and loyal helper in the dramatic department he proved his versatility. He is particularly remembered for his perseverance, conscientiousness, industry, and loyalty, qualities he must have exemplified to the very end.

Surely his name must remain forever on the roster of this school as the first of those who, in the present conflict, gave their all for the cause of freedom.
